I prefer to have the Morse Code requirement removed as part of the testing process for ham radio licenses.